

CHURCH WOMEN UNITED OF ATLANTA, INC

January Special Photo Edition - Girls Right of Passage 2025

Dr. Sadye Potter, director of the event

This is the speaker Leticia Heflin who works for the CDC. She told the girls she was a former Girl scout and she had a GREAT MESSAGE " Love Yourself "

The program committee with the girls as they received their certificates at the end of Day 2

Swag bags given to the girls

menu for the delicious lunch

Sharon Ingram asking questions to the audience

Speaker Bridgette Jones who spoke to the girls about Domestic Violence that happens at a young age. Her daughter was killed by her boyfriend.

The girls won prizes by answering questions about what the speakers had presented.

This table was set up by one of the presenters who presented a health and wellness segment. She brought vegan gummies for everyone to try.

Sheila Louder, past President; Dr Sayde Potter; the girls receiving their certificates and Nedra Juniel, current President

